Mr. Merton Clivette,
92 Fifth Avenue,
New York City, N. Y.

Dear Clivette:

I was passing down Fifth Avenue Sunday and I saw that Tiger of yours chained in Sax's window. I immediately went to the other side of the street, fearing the fellow might get loose.

You know I lived at 615 Fifth Avenue for eight years and I am darn glad I don't live there now with that wild animal in the building.

I talked with Mr. Hellman during your exhibition and he was to have called me up with reference to your exhibition in our Los Angeles Galleries. I am not going behind Mr. Hellman's back to talk with you. You take it up with him and see if he cares to make an exhibition there.

With kindest regards and wishing for your continued success, I am,

Sincerely yours,

P.S. Come up and have lunch with us some day. We would like to have another good laugh. We still have some of that apple sauce.
